Disqualifications

Municipal Act, section 53, as amended

53. (1) The following shall not be eligible to be elected a member of a council or be entitled to sit or vote therein:

- (a) A judge of any court;
- (b) A gaoler or a keeper of a lock-up;
- (c) A sheriff, deputy sheriff, or sheriff's bailiff;
- (d) A chief constable of a city or town;
- (e) An assessment commissioner, assessor, a collector of taxes, a treasurer, a clerk, or any other officer, employee or servant of the corporation of a municipality;
- (f) A person other than the head of the council who is a member of a board or commission appointed or elected for the construction, management or control of an electric railway, street railway or steam railway which is owned by, or leased to, or controlled by a municipal corporation, or by trustees, or by any board or commission acting for or on behalf of such corporation.
This clause (f) shall have effect notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special Act or any by-law of a municipal corporation.
- (g) A clerk or bailiff of a division court;
- (h) A crown attorney or a clerk of the peace;
- (i) A registrar or a deputy-registrar of deeds;
- (j) A master or a local master of titles;
- (k) A member of a board of education or of a public or separate school board of a city, town or village, or a member of a high school board, unless he has at least three days before the day of nomination filed his resignation with the secretary of the board; [See also sub-section (4)]
- (l) A police magistrate;
- (m) A clerk of a county or district court;
- (n) A deputy clerk of the crown or a local registrar;
- (o) A person having himself or by or with or through another an interest in any contract with the corporation or with any commission or person acting for the corporation or in any contract for the supply of goods or materials to a contractor for work for which the corporation pays or is liable directly or indirectly to pay, or which is subject to the control or supervision of the council or of an officer of the corporation, or who has an unsatisfied claim for such goods or materials.
- (i) "Contract" in this clause includes in cities, towns and villages, a contract with public and high school boards and boards of education. [1930, c. 44, s. 3.]
- (p) A person who either himself or by or with or through another has any claim, action or proceeding against the corporation, but this clause shall not apply with respect to any moneys paid or payable to a member of council under the provisions of sections 433, 434, 435 or 436; [Am. 1932, c. 29, s. 5.]
- (q) A person who, either himself or by or with or through another is counsel or solicitor in the prosecution of any claim, action or proceeding against the corporation or in opposing or defending any claim, action or proceeding by the corporation;
- (r) An owner or tenant against the land in respect of which he qualifies there are at the time of the nomination any taxes of a preceding year or years overdue and unpaid; [1935, c. 43, s. 3 (1).]
- (s) A tenant who at the time of the nomination owes more than three months rent upon the property in respect of which he qualifies; [1935, c. 43, s. 3 (1).]
- (t) A person who is an undischarged bankrupt or insolvent within the meaning of any Bankruptcy or Insolvency Act in force in Ontario; [1928, c. 37, s. 3.]
- (u) A person whose taxes in respect of an assessment for income or business at the time of the nomination are overdue and unpaid. [1935, c. 43, s. 3 (2).]

(1a) In any municipality in which under the provisions of this or any special Act members of council are elected for a term of two or more years, no person who is a member of the council and whose term of office has at least two months to run after the day on which the nomination meeting for the annual municipal election is to be held shall be eligible to be nominated for membership in the council in any other office unless he has at least ten days before the day of nomination filed his resignation from the office which he then holds with the clerk of the municipality, and the clerk shall not place on the ballot paper the name of any such person as a candidate who fails to file such resignation within the time aforesaid. [1936, c. 39, s. 2, part.]

(2) Sub-section (1) shall not apply to a person by reason only:

- (a) Of his being a shareholder in an incorporated company having dealings or a contract with the corporation; or
  - (b) Of his being a lessee of the corporation for a term of twenty-one years or upwards of any property of the corporation; or
  - (c) That part of his property is exempt wholly or in part from taxation, whether such exemption is founded on an agreement with the corporation or on a by-law of the council; or
  - (d) Of his being the proprietor of or otherwise interested in a newspaper or other periodical publication in which official advertisements or notices which appear in other newspapers or periodical publications are published by the council or for which the council is a subscriber or which is furnished to any department or officer of a corporation if the same are paid for at the usual rates and he has not agreed with the corporation to do the whole or the principal part of its printing;
  - (e) Of his having been appointed and paid for his services as commissioner, superintendent or overseer of any highway or of any work undertaken wholly or in part at the expense of the corporation; [See also section 436.]
  - (f) Of his being a consumer or taker of anything supplied by the corporation or any commission under The Public Utilities Act or of his having entered into a contract with the corporation or commission for the supply of it to him;
  - (g) Of his having entered into an agreement of sale with a municipal housing commission;
  - (h) Of his being assessed as the owner of lands against which taxes are overdue and unpaid, if at the time of the election he is not the owner of such lands and if such taxes became due after he ceased to own the said lands. [1931, c. 50, s. 7.]
- (3) A person being such a shareholder shall not vote on any question affecting the company or being such a lessee shall not vote on any question affecting his lease or his rights or liabilities thereunder, or being so exempt from taxation shall not vote on any question affecting the property so exempt, or being such a proprietor of or otherwise interested in a newspaper or other periodical publication shall not vote on any question affecting his dealings with the corporation.
- (4) The filing of the resignation mentioned in clause (k) of sub-section 1 shall render vacant the seat of the member.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (f) of sub-section 1 and of section 37 of The Public Utilities Act, a member of a board or commission appointed or elected for the construction, management, or control of an electric railway, street railway or steam railway mentioned in said clause (f) may be appointed or elected and be entitled to sit and vote as a member of a commission established under The Power Commission Act, The Public Utilities Act or any special Act for the management and control of a public utility.
