Principal E. Holden.

NOTES TO PARENTS AND PUPILS

1. Pupils should be present every day and on time.
2. Reasonable assignments of homework are allowed for grade seven and eight if the teacher finds it necessary. Under normal conditions pupils should make collections, study spelling and memory gems and read a book every month.
3. Parents should avoid helping grade one pupils to read as they so often just memorize the stories. Grade one to three learn to read, after they read to learn.
4. Promotion will be based largely on the daily work and tests given near the first of October, December, March, May and June.
5. Parents and teachers should meet often. They share the responsibility of guiding the development of the character, attitudes, knowledge, arts, skills, and health of Canadian children.

Parent or Teacher's Pencil Note

During the last few months 3 of Grade 1 have been doing work with Grade 2. I am recommending them for 2nd. They will finish their 1st and start 2nd next year. If you find it is too hard on Richard could you please let the teacher know. If she finds they don't get on well enough she will put them back.

Very good work.
