Charles Collins Home and School

The first cause of death in children between the ages of two and fourteen is not any disease, but accidents, and most of these accidents could have been prevented, Miss Annie Boyle, Sandwich South school nurse, told members of the Charles Collins Home and School Association, at their May meeting at the school.

In her talk on "Health and Accidents in Canada" Miss Boyle urged all parents to make a safety check in their homes, removing all hazards that might endanger their children. All parents would need to do would be to spend a day at a Windsor hospital right after Victoria Day or during the canning season to see the tragic results of parental failure to take such precautions.

Some important safety provisions are rubber stair treads, gates to keep toddlers out of the kitchen and away from stairs, and the locking away of all firearms, medicines and cleaning materials that contain poison.

Canada's enviable health record will be maintained only if discoveries of immunization methods, up-to-date hospitals and public health services are used and known methods of hygiene and sanitation are followed, Miss Boyle warned.

Gordon Collins, association president, led a short business meeting during which plans were made for a rummage sale to be held at the June meeting. At that time officers will be installed and reports on the past year's work will be given. Oliver Izsak, treasurer, reported that $36.05 was taken in at the recent bake sale. Mrs. William Libby reported on efforts made by parents to have police surveillance of traffic along the Malden road to prevent speeding, and the members voted to ask that a school warning sign be erected at a suitable distance south of the school.

There will be an executive meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beetham Tuesday evening, May 27th.

Help for retarded children in all rural areas may depend on support given to the Sandwich South Township School for Retarded Children, the first rural school for the retarded in Ontario.

This was part of the message given by Mrs. Brien Pettypiece, secretary-treasurer of the Sandwich South Association for Retarded Children at the March meeting of the Charles Collins Home and School Association.

Mrs. Pettypiece received a donation from the Home and School Association to help buy a station wagon for the school so that a station wagon lent by Churchwood School may be returned.

In outlining progress made at the school, which has been operating only since January, Mrs. Pettypiece emphasized her group's appreciation of the assistance given by Churchwood leaders. Mrs. Sunny Ray, an experienced Churchwood teacher drives her nine pupils to and from school as well as teaching them all morning. Soon three more children will be admitted, and the school will have to be open in the afternoons. Then Mrs. Ray will be unable to do the driving.

Once the Sandwich South group has a charter of its own, even with provincial grants and transportation fees paid by parents, it will need $4,000 a year to keep operating, Mrs. Pettypiece explained. Support from individuals and group in the six townships served by the school will be welcomed. These townships are Sandwich South, Anderton, Essex, Colchester North, Colchester South, and Maidstone.

Wilfrid Greaves presided during a business meeting when members voted to hold a dance for the school children and their parents Saturday evening, April 4th, at the school. It will be called Bunny Hop, and music will be supplied by hi-fi recordings.

Karen Farough, Sylvia Farough, and David Libby sang the selections they were giving in Windsor's Music Festival. Miss Agnes Hartley, music supervisor in the Sandwich South schools accompanied her young pupils.

A bountiful lunch was served by Oliver Izsak, Russell Burrows, James Farough, Steve Santo, George Van Eenoo and Wilfrid Greaves, with Ross C. Flood Jr. serving as committee chairman.

The next executive meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Eenoo March 24th.

There was a good attendance at the Parent's Club meeting in the school on October 13th, when Mr. Patterson, of the Senior room was given an enthusiastic welcome from parents and pupils, thanking all, he said he thought he knew the pupils pretty well after teaching for a month, and felt co-operation between parents and teachers was essential, he is planning to take Grades 7 and 8, to the Malden Museum and asked for assistance with transportation.

Mrs. Bill Libby, president, announced the Annual Halloween Party will be October 31st from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Parents are asked to bring the usual goodies for the treat bags. There will be no executive meeting this month.

The November meeting will be our health meeting in charge of Miss Boyle, R.N., of the Health Unit.

Mrs. Tracey our former teacher, presented Parent Club Pins to those who graduated from her class in June, congratulating them and offered a word of advice to each one personally as she made the presentations to Moira Axcell, Johnny Beetham, Kathie Farough, Gloria Flood, Dick Sweet and Richard Van Eenoo.

Milton Farough, chairman of the School Area, introduced Mr. K. C. McDonald, Vice-Principal of the Essex District High School who spoke to the graduating class, he said he was pleased to have the opportunity to speak to the graduates and to congratulate the teachers for bringing them through their first eight years of school.

Choose new friends carefully and wisely, do not grow up too fast, learn to be polite to adults. Boys, shave, buy your own razor and use it. Girls, what a shame to spoil your beauty with make-up, wear clothes that's practical, and stay in school. At all factories there are jobs for only 3 percent for unskilled workers or those who have not had at least Grade 12, he said.

Mrs. Eleanor Merrifield thanked all for a very interesting meeting, the children are so lucky to have the schools and teachers they have to-day and asked them to give what they heard to-night serious thought not only now but all through their lives.

Social conveners, Mrs. Earl Beetham, Mrs. Harold Sweet and Mrs. Robert Gowanlock served lunch.
