The McCluskey Family

The McCluskey's came From Ireland in 1847. There was a famine in 1846. They first settled in Hamilton, where grandad McCluskey worked at his trade as a tailor. There were five boys and four girls. They came to a farm between Essex and Woodslee and later on to the village of Maidstone where grandad had a shop opposite the present brick store which was Frank's carriage shop. Frank, who married Mary Sheridan and learned his trade as a carriage builder while in Hamilton also learned auctioneering. Thomas, who married Ellen Picket had a blacksmith shop where he did repair work and horse-shoeing. John and Charles had a foundry in Sandwich. There are some of the columns in buildings on Sandwich Street, Windsor, also in St. Mary's Church at Maidstone. Charles married Libby McAully. John Married Jennie Shanahan. William (who was a farmer) married Margaret Murphy.

The girls married as follows: Bridget married Dennis Dorthy and they had four boys and three girls: Nancy married Daniel Costigan and they had four boys and five girls: Margaret married Henry Hamilton and they had eight boys and four girls and Mary married Daniel Morrison and they had three boys.

Frank the oldest of the Hamilton family was born in 1853 and Margaret the youngest was born in 1876. There are only two living, Thomas who lives in Rosebush on a farm with his son and Frank Sylvester who lives down south. The living members are Agnes of the Costigan family, Mrs. Trimble and Gilbert of the Charles McCloskey family, Leo, Treasa, Mrs. Donahue, Ethel, Mrs Langan of the John McCloskey family, James, Helen (Mrs. William Greenaway) Mary, (Mrs Albert McCarthy) and Francis who is a nun.

In the Thomas McCloskey family John & Charles both dead. The Frank McCloskey family, Charles married Agnes O'Neil. Thomas married Mary Jane McHugh and Frank married Agnes McHugh. John and William did not marry. Catherine married Bart Hines and had no children. Mary married John A. McKeon and had no children; Margaret married Edward Walsh and had five children, two living and three dead and Elizabeth married Robert Halford and had six boys four of whom are living, and seven girls five of whom are living.

The McCloskey's were of an inventive mind. John invented a thrashing machine, the model which was 2'x6' was in the upstairs of the store run by Mrs. Mike John for a number of years. This model had all the improvements of the machine of today except the blower (self feeder tallier) This machine was made first by George White of London who made the steam engines for the thrashers. Charles Frank's son worked with John in London. While in London he met his wife. They moved to Sarnia, where John Goodison manufactured the separator. John also invented a wooden frame bicycle for ladies and gents. William, who invented a wire fence weaver which was used until the the woven fence came in. He also wanted a two horse cultivator with all the shovels at the same depth at any height.

William's son, Leo, invented a two wheel line drive tractor. One could sit on a load of hay and drive the same as horses. They had moving pictures of it in Curry's moving picture show on the corner of Ouellette and Park St. Windsor. A company was formed to manufacture them. The first war came and they could not get the material to manufacture them. The Hamilton family moved to Rosebush near Mt. Pleasant 75 years ago to farm. The took a democrat, which Frank McCloskey made in Maidstone with them. This was used for a number of years. People were Dying to get in it. (as a hearse)

Notes for Rebecca Moran:

The Great Famine of 1847, caused by the total failure of the potato crop, was the most cataclysmic event of the last century. Even today remaining artifacts such as the famine pot at Lough Eske remind us of that grim period when a million people died of starvation and famine related disease and another million plus were forced to emigrate, many of them to die in the coffin ships bearing them to the land of promise.

Famine of course is a misnomer for the tragedy, because there was in fact a good grain crop in that year but the government allowed this to be exported while the people at home were dying of starvation. So much has been written about the famine that almost every schoolchild is conversant with its history, and we still have people with us who can recount some poignant tale of a harrowing experience in their own family which has been handed down by word of mouth from generation to generation. Jim McMullin, from Meenadreen did recall many stories told to him by his grandfather who lived through the famine and died at a very ripe age in 1911.

There had been failures of the potato crop before 1847 but these had been confined to specific areas where in certain years the blight had been particularly severe, and consequently did not have the same widespread effect that followed the 1847 failure.

Nevertheless they did cause great distress wherever they occurred and left the people in the affected areas economically and psychologically unprepared for the trauma that faced them in 1847. This was true of our own two parishes of Tawnawilly and Killymard which suffered badly in the potato failure of 1830/31. Whole families had to resort to begging to keep body and soul together. Let us look for a moment at conditions that prevailed in this area even before "black forty-seven".

The failure of the potato crop two years in succession, 1830/1831, created dreadful hardships and led inevitably to a breakdown in ordinary trading practice. People deprived of their staple diet had to resort to the shops to buy alternative supplies. This led eventually to a scarcity of provisions resulting in a marketing situation of supply and demand which regulated the prices. A continual rise in prices meant that even when supplies did become available the poorer classes could not afford them. The cottier or small farmer who had not enough land to provide for his family depended on odd labouring jobs with the better off farmers to supplement his meagre income, but eventually even the big farmers had to cut back on their outlay which meant less work for the already suffering cottier; and his wife fared no better. A woman might spin for a whole week to earn eightpence. The little seasonal employment housewives got preussist by begging?" The response in Donegal was 100 and in Killymard it was 20. It is difficult in these days of affluence to perceive of a situation so desperate that a proud people were forced to strip themselves of their dignity and resort to what was for them a degrading experience. There were some who just could not bring themselves around to taking this final step to mendacity. Patrick Doherty, a labourer, told the enquiry that he was sure there were many who would prefer to die from cold and hunger than go out regularly to beg for charity - but what mother would let her child die if asking for help would save its life.

William McDonagh, shopkeeper, said that most of the women who go about begging with their families are the wives of cottier tenants who inhabit the upper parts of the Parish and have no more than a rood of land which is not enough to support a family. He said that the men are always ashamed to enter the town or district where their wives are known to beg. Thomas Brooke, High Sheriff, who lived in Ardnamona, in an implied criticism of the Board of Education who were threatening their tenants in Tawnawilly with eviction, said that one estate in Tawnawilly with over 8,000 acres and belonging to the Board, furnishes more paupers than any other part of the country. When asked what the churches were doing to alleviate the suffering of the poor both Father McCafferty and the Rector Rev. Homan said they had often appealed from the church for help for some distressed person or family and people responded to the best of their ability. Rev. Homan said that visitors to the Spa Baths in the summer always contributed to his appeal. The shopkeepers set up their own scheme of relief and in order to ensure that it was local people who benefited and not outsiders who were taking advantage of their generosity they adopted a system of identification tags. Monday was declared "help day".

Willie Love praised the farmers who gave what little they could spare to relieve the suffering of the poor. He himself never let a beggar out of the house without a good "goping" (two handfuls) of oatmeal.

Anthony Diver, Postmaster, told the enquiry that within the past seven years no less than seven corn stores had been built in the town and these gave good employment and, he continued, Lord Aran had made a number of improvements to the town and quay. About 2,000 tons of grain were exported from Donegal Quay the previous year; despite this, he said, the condition of the labouring classes and small farmers seemed to be getting worse and they were growing poorer every day. Richard Corscadden who had a grocery business on the Diamond (now part of the Abbey Hotel) said that the majority of the beggars came from the country parts of Killymard and Donegal and from parishes in the immediate neighbourhood.

It was around this time that John Hamilton, Landlord, came to reside in St. Ernan's, and his benevolence then and again in 1847 was to make him a well loved and revered figure in Donegal. Many years later the parish priest of Donegal, Father John Doherty, in a letter to the Derry Journal wrote, "In all Ireland there never was, nor is there, a more considerate and humane landlord than the good and kind-hearted proprietor of St. Ernan's. I know the pulse of his tenants well, and I know of my own knowledge that they honour him.

William McCloskey Early Essex, Ontario Settlers

The Commemorative Biographical Record of the County of Essex, Ontario tells us:

WILLIAM McCLOSKEY, a successful Farmer of Maidstone, has lived since 1889 on his present farm, which is in Lot 11, on the Middle Road, in Maidstone Township. William is one of the substantial citizens of his section, and comes of an old and highly respected family, members of which were among the earliest settlers in Essex. The McCloskeys were among the first founders of Churches and Schools in this part of Canada and took an active part in all progressive work in the settlement of the new country.

Charles and Rebecca (Moran) McCloskey, parents of William, were natives of the North of Ireland, where they grew up and were married. In 1847 they came to Canada, settling for a time in Hamilton, where Charles McCloskey followed his trade of Tailor. In 1855 they moved to Maidstone and settled on some wild land in Concession 3, clearing a farm and building the home where the remainder of their lives were passed.

Rebecca (Moran) McCloskey died in December 1866, and Charles McCloskey in June 1877. Charles and Rebecca (Moran) McCloskey were both members of the Roman Catholic Church. He was a Conservative in politics, but never cared for office. They had a family of nine children, as follows:

° Bridget McCloskey, born in Ireland, married Dennie Doherty, settled in Maidstone, and died leaving children: o George Doherty,

o James Doherty,

o Margaret Doherty,

o Mary A. Doherty,

o Bridget Doherty,

o William Doherty, up on the farm and attended school in Maidstone, remaining at home until his marriage. Until his father's death William McCloskey managed the home farm, but after that event, in 1889, he sold the old place, and bought his present farm on the Middle Road. There William has erected a comfortable house and commodious barns and outbuildings and has cleared up a large part of the land since he became its owner.

William McCloskey is recognized as one of the successful Farmers of the region, as well as one of the most public-spirited citizens.

On June 6, 1878, William McCloskey married Maggie Murphy, who was born in Rochester Township Dec. 23, 1859, daughter of Patrick and Catherine (O'Connor) Murphy, pioneer settlers of that township. Notes for Thomas Patrick McCloskey:

I was born March 15th, 1875, and baptized March 17, the sponsors being my Uncle Tom McCloskey and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan.

The first school I went to was No. 7, on Talbot Road (No. 3 Highway), which was the only school within four miles of Maidstone. This school was located on the Thomas Lennon farm. My dear wife was the last one to teach in that school, as it burned down during vacation time. The school was then built on the Emmet McCarthy place, being as another school was built on the corner of the Malden Road and Rear Road (an old military road which ran to Fort Malden, near Amherstburg). When this school was built, I attended same, this being the last school I went to.

My memory takes me back to 1880, on March 15, which was my birthday. On that day, it was zero weather a west wind to face on Talbot road (No. 3 Highway). I did not want to go to school, I wanted to celebrate, but my sister Mary (Mrs. John. A. McKeon) made me go. I started out with Henry Collins and Joe Moran. We got in the house this side of Malenfant's Gas Station, to get out of the wind and cold. There was a sleigh come along and Moran and Collins (who were older than me) made the grade, but I was left, and came home. This was the coldest I ever was in my life.

The first job I had was tending to the switch lamps on the M.C.R., taking them into the station in the morning, filling them with oil, cleaning them, and putting them out before dark. There was one semaphore about opposite the church, and another the same distance from the station west. These were operated from the station, with a cable. My wages were $8.00 a month. When I was 14 years old, I went to Muskegon, Mich., where my brother Will had a confectionery, and I was clerking in it. There was no partition between it and a music store (Will thought that everybody was honest, but those men who had keys to the store, used to help themselves to candy and cigars. He had a job as a clerk in the largest hotel in Muskegon, MI. When he went out of business, he got a job as clerk in a summer resort called Lake Harbour, on Lake Michigan. I got a job for my board, renting rowboats and setting up pins in the bowling alley. We used to walk four miles to church, through the woods on Sundays.

I then came home. It was the last day of the celebration of the G.A.R. I arrived in Grand Rapids at 11 o'clock at night, and bought a return ticket to Detroit. I sold the return portion of the ticket to a person who were then known as Ticket scalpers. My next job was working at the church and going to school. I had a horse and cow to look after and four stoves in the church, of which three of them was not used on week days, except for funerals and holy days. There were three stoves in the house, one up-stairs (all wood stoves) and I had to get wood enough in at night to last the next day. I was telling Pat and Bob Flood all the work I used to do and go to school. When I got through telling them, I said I used to split wood the rest of the night. Bob said I was crazy.

I then worked in the shop doing repair work to wagons and buggies. Uncle Will McCloskey invented a fence weaver, so I went to work for the company. Their place of business was on Sandwich Street, in the Windsor Record building. They got power from them. I machined all that was made in Canada. They then gave a large order to a firm in Detroit, and had them made cheaper. The outfit sold to agents for $5.00 and retailed at $8.00. There was moneyed men in the company, John Kaye, of Wright, Kaye & Co., Dr King and others. There was a contest at the Essex Fair, between the Jim Weaver and the McCloskey, the McCloskey machine doing twice as much as the other. I was after my uncle to sell out when it was taken so well, but he did not and then they were put out of business by the woven fence coming in.

I was working for Edward Mooney, whose implement shop stood on the corner of Windsor Avenue and Sandwich Street. The Windsor Turned Goods Co., went into business on Salter avenue, and the head man, who was general agent for the Massey-Harris Co., asked me to go and work for his company. I helped to build the buildings and then worked on the spoke machines. My foreman was John Milner, whose father ran the wagon works where plant one of the Ford Motor Co. stands today. Mr. Milner used to look after the installing of countershaft and machines. Sometimes the work would have to be done at noon-hour and he always called on me to help him. I then worked on an extra gang double tracking the M.C.R. from Windsor to Maidstone.

My father, who used to say he was once a man and twice a child. I used to look after him, cutting his hair, pressing his clothes, shaving him, and he was never done thanking me. When he died, he had $2,000 life insurance in the Catholic Mutual Benefits Association, so my mother gave me enough money to start a store in the present building where Mrs. Mike John keeps a store. I had groceries, dry goods (mostly prints) which I sold for 10c and 12c a yard; work shoes for adults and children. The first order of groceries I bought, peas and corn sold for 5c a can and best of tea sold at 25c a pound, 25 lbs. of sugar for $1.00, and everything else was cheap.

Before starting the store I worked on the M.C.R. section for $1.10 a day, for 10 hours' work. People lived on those wages then. Now it just means you are handling more money. My next job was working in the elevator for Leo and Vincent McCloskey. My brother-in-law, Robert Halford, spoke to W.C. Kennedy about getting me a job at the Ford Motor Co., so Mr. Kennedy spoke to Mr. McGregor, who was head man, so I started working there, at a wage of 30c an hour and 50c for overtime. I worked there for 30 years and retired seven years ago.

I am at present doing housework and mending socks, so if you have any socks to mend bring them along, it is a good pastime for me. I like to keep busy all the time. I am like the man who did not want to lose any time. If he happened to fall down in the yard, he would pick a hand full of chips so as not to lose any time. I hope all my grandchildren will be like this man, and help their mothers with the work.

I think that we are living in the best place on earth, and those of you who live in Canada, are living in the best country in the world today. I hope you will all be content here. Far away lands look green, but one finds out different when they get there.

Love to all,

GRANDPA

Notes for Virginia Ann Ritchie:
MCCLOSKEY, Virginia (nee Ritchie)

Virginia (Mom, Grandma, Great-Grandma, Sister) embodied so many beautiful qualities. She was the epitome of strength, and resilience. Virginia had a great sense of humour, the most infectious laugh, and the ability to say things as they were. She was full of wisdom, and had a natural way to make anyone feel loved, supported, and empowered. Virginia was an old-school Registered Nurse who regaled us with stories about the nuns at St. Joe's in London during the fifties. She was on the "front-lines" at Hotel-Dieu in Windsor and Harper-Grace in Detroit. She went on to raise and nurture our family on Dormar Drive, welcoming friends and neighbours for a game of Rummy or Yahtzee. She returned to nursing after we had grown up, caring for residents at Riverside Nursing Home. For the past few years, Heron Terrace is the place that she called home, where she sat on the board to advocate for her fellow residents. Virginia spoke highly of the care she received at Heron Terrace, often referring to the staff as her "other family." For them, we are so grateful. Virginia passed away on April 14, 2020 at the age of 83. Virginia left us peacefully, holding her granddaughter Brienne's hand, and hearing the voices of her beloved family. Virginia is welcomed by her loving husband and best friend, Charles "Chuck" of 57 years. Cherished Mom of Sharon Scammell (Kirt), David McCloskey (Allison Bellemore), Paul McCloskey (Penny Greenwood), Mary Jo Dillon (Paul Giordimaina), and Mark McCloskey (Amanda Deboer). Adored Grandma of Jason (Mirela), Meagan (Nicole), Morgan (Jena), Carley (Ryan), Alex (Lauren), Kate, Charlotte, Brienne (Mitchell), Jewel, Kelli, Matt, Derek (Breanne), Grace. Proud Great-Grandma of Benjamin and Mila, Madison and Everett, and Ophelia. Dear Sister of Joan Gallagher (Morrie), and the late William Ritchie. Sister-in-law of the late Raymond (Eileen), and Mary Catherine (Anthony Gerrish). Virginia will also be missed by many nieces, nephews, and friends, especially her friend of many years, Barb Cadieux. Lastly, Virginia will be missed immensely by her good friend and movie-going buddy, Vince. Our thoughts are with the individuals and families who are impacted by the loss of Virginia, as well as the tragic times in our world. Mom, Grandma, Great-Grandma, we are all so proud to be the legacy you leave behind. A private family service and burial has taken place. A memorial service will be held at a later date. The Bereavement Authority of Ontario has instituted the following directive: "The new maximum number of people who can be at a funeral home at one time (not including staff) is 10 or fewer. This pertains to the entire funeral home."
