How many can you identify?

Historical markers significant in the Monger/Ferriss/Quick families.

1. Covered Bridge at Ruddles Mill, over Stoner Creek, Bourbon County, KY. Mongers were taken captive at Ruddles Station in 1780 and marched to Detroit.
2. Monument in Toledo, on Maumee - signifying Greenville Treaty and The Battle of Fallen Timbers in which Charles Munger was killed.
3. Historical Marker, on Highway 27, between Cynthiana and Paris, KY. #107 Ruddles Station - settled by John Hinkston 1775 abandoned 1776. Rebuilt by Isaac Ruddle 1779. Destroyed by British and Indians under Capt. Henry Bird 1780. Hinkston later settled opposite this site.
